

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1865.

Leavenworth
Fort Sumner Flag
raising to day - just four years since it was furled both done by Maj Gen. Andrew Beecher the high priest -

Weather warmer but cloudy up for rain

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1865.

Morning Telegram
reported President
Lincoln assassina
ted at Ford's Theatre in Washington - and Sec. Seward stricken in his sick bed -

Afternoon - soon
another that Lincoln
was dead -

vice President
Johnson immediately
sworn in

SUNDAY, APRIL 16, 1865.

D. R. went to M. C.
Church - Mitchell gave a stirring word -

John Oshorn went to the Irish Catholic
they did not mention
the occurrence -
I went to the Episcopal merely mentioned
the fact -

In eve I called
at Colored M. C. & Colored Baptist - but the jam was too great -

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1865.

Milker Boothe
the murderer -
Seward not dead

Sent letter to Ayla & Mother
and Lydia Mott
and received letter from Merritt and
Mrs. Wright of Ankum -

Rainy -

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1865.

Rainy -

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1865.

Annual services of President Lincoln
at Washington & all over the country -

very warm & sultry
- wrote letters in
P. M. to Mrs. Stanton,
Pillsbury & Phillips -

Annie & self
had pleasant call at Dr. Mayers in evening -

THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1865.

Chilly forenoon -
Capt. M. Smith dined
with us

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1865.

Cold, Sleety, Windy

SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1865.

Very faint, illegible handwriting.

SUNDAY, APRIL 23, 1865.

Note Fast day for the Death of Lincoln.

Heard Suggitt
in the A. M.
attended Peoples
Meeting at Savings
Hall in P. M.

Colored people took front seats - the red Manery anti-negro people dreadfully shocked & outraged