Dear Brother John

Your welcome letter of the 17th just recd glad to hear from you. The loss that you refer to that our Nation has suffered is irreparable shocking to think of but it shows how he roused the affections of the hearts of the people. I have just been over to his funeral at or eulogy at the Congregational Church the regular funeral is to be next Tues the City is draped in mourning and has been from the time of hearing the intelligence our Church was draped clear around also and all the front of the pulpit I think that our country wounded no more for Washington than they have & will for Father Abraham I sent those pens this morn and will enclose Bill cost $6. you can sell them in any shape that you can holders or pens Chas had no medium Pens with Silver Holders but will soon Lib is to be married tomorrow morning at nine o'clock I am invited there is to be only the family Henry has got back I have just noticed that you say that you will not go to Coldwater until Monday well all right I believe that I would try a while in Coldwater I have not found a situation yet Please write soon Your Brother
