

Richmond April 17th 1865.

My dear brother - Your very kind & welcome letter by Dr. Fisher, reached me yesterday, in the midst of the gloom caused by that act of atrocious crime & folly that has thrilled a Continent with horror. No words can depict the grief & consternation that this foul murder has produced here. I was beginning to hope for speedy tranquillity, & knew that in Mr. Lincoln we had a man whom policy & certainly secured it, & all classes seemed ready to bow, & many to welcome his authority with joy. I felt that in him we had a wise, true & humane ruler, whom we could trust. And now in the mysterious Providence of God we are struck down by the hand of the assassin. Oh it is unspeakably sad & fearful. & we can only gaze in silence on this new act of sorrow & mystery that opens up. I believe that at no time for two years past as the assassination of Davis has caused a hundredth part of the grief here that this has done. for he has long been losing the love & confidence of the people which Mr. Lincoln was with unexampled capacity gaining it. What the effect will be on this awful struggle, God only knows.

Perhaps as a martyr to his principles it may conciliate them & induce the continuance of his policy, by wh. tranquillity w. so soon has been restored, perhaps it may be otherwise, & then who can foretell the end. Oh it is a time for good men to pray as they never prayed before. May God have mercy on our poor, distracted country.

I wish very much I could see you, & have a long talk with you. Can't you come down & see me? I had the most sanguine hopes of a speedy settlement until this sad event happened, & will still cherish them. Most of the people of Va.
I think regarded the war as ended with Lee's surrender, & wanted peace & were willing to come back on Mr.

Lincoln's terms. I hope still that the policy will be such as to keep up this feeling, & make Va. once more a loyal state. But that is yet to be seen.
For myself I am sick & weary of war, secession & tumult, & long for some quiet spot where I can live & work in peace. Whether I can remain here is doubtful, as my congregation is harassed by the fire, & I fear cannot support me.
I will, if permitted, stay as long as I can, & share their struggles. In a few years all will be restored again, but in the interim there must be much suffering. — The money I refund to was this. I have been for several years in the habit of doing what I did for the U. S. prisoners here, giving & loaning them money, amounting in the aggregate to between 5 or 6000 dollars (Conf'd.) I took from Officers an obligation to refund, at their convenience, in different ways. Some few have done it, I learned soon to a Capt. Kloppenborg, 1 List, 4th N. Y. Cavalry, a Dane, who said he was on Sheridan's Staff. I told him to refund to you. I know not why he has not, nor do I care much, I did then acts not on speculation, but as a Ch^r, believing that my Master at any rate, if the prisoners did not, & I don't suspect to live in the long run, for the Cup of cold water has its reward.

Mrs. Rutcliffe has gone to Wash., & will tell you about us all. Judge Scarborough is in Halifax Co. I think, Judge Campbell & family here. Bassett & Weston has gone with the Govt. Dr. H. Wood & Weston is in Albemarle with his friends.
His family are in Yorkville S. C. Pugh was with the army, but had given him as a R. S. & may be there still. Dr.
Layburn goes to Washington to-morrow & I may send this by him. — Give my kindest remembrances to Mrs. Shirley & your daughter if with you — I hope soon to see you here. I live in the same place (Leigh b. 4th 5th) & if you come can right here. & we will find a plan for you, with a hearty welcome —

In Dr. Shirley very truly yours, J. V. Moore
