

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The following is a description of the proposed route as given in the bill introduced in the United States Senate by Mr. Brown of Missouri. It is somewhat different from any before proposed, but would be very satisfactory to our people:

Beginning at or near the town of Springfield, in the State of Missouri, thence to the western boundary line of said State, and then by the most eligible railroad route as shall be determined by said company, to a point on the Canadian river between the 95th and 98th meridians; thence by the way of the valley of the Canadian river and the headwaters of the Rio Pecos, (near Anton Chicot) to the town of Albuquerque, on the river del Norte, and thence by way of the Agua Frio, or some suitable pass, to the headwaters of the Colorado Chiquito, and thence along the 35th parallel of latitude, as near as may be found most suitable for a railway route, over the region embraced in the survey made under the direction of the War Department, by Lieutenant Whipple and Edward F. Beale to the Colorado river, at such point as may be selected by said company for crossing; thence by way of the San Gorgonia Pass to San Diego, and by the Tejon passes and the Tulare and San Joaquin and their lateral valleys to the bay of San Francisco. The said company shall have the right to construct a branch from the point at which their road strikes the Canadian river eastwardly along the most suitable route as selected to a point in the western boundary line of Arkansas at or near the town of Van Buren, and shall also have the right to connect their road at the point of crossing the Colorado river by steamers with Guaymas.

FIRST U. S. CAVALRY.—This Regiment, under Colonel Brackett, has reached San Francisco, and is ordered, we are told, to report to General Mason for service in Arizona. The San Francisco Bulletin of January 23d says:

The First Regiment of Cavalry, commanded by Colonel A. G. Brackett, and numbering 627 men, arrived on the steamship Sacramento last evening. The regiment was formerly on this coast, when it was commanded by Colonel Beale, and was sent East in 1861, at the breaking out of the rebellion. The regiment has been engaged in active service during the entire war, and is latterly from New Orleans, where it was sent with Sheridan's Texan army. It is the oldest cavalry regiment in the United States service, and many of its former officers have distinguished themselves in aiding to put down the rebellion. One of the Magraders was formerly a Lieutenant in the regiment, but resigned and went over to the rebels because his claims to the rank of Brigadier General were not recognized by the United States Senate. The troops marched through the city this morning headed by their band. Their steady marching, soldierly air and war-worn appearance was generally remarked by the spectators along the line of march.

CAPT. JOHNSON SUCCESSFUL.—The California Assembly finally decided the San Diego election case by ousting Kurtz and admitting Johnson.

BY AUTHORITY.

LAWS OF ARIZONA—1865.

ADOPTED BY THE SECOND LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

Regarding National Affairs.

WHEREAS, Loyalty and steadfast obedience to the laws are cardinal principles with every good citizen, and a faithful support of those in authority in all lawful actions is the duty of every one, and

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the bloody civil war which has so long desolated our land, and carried mourning into every house, is now happily terminated by the complete triumph of the Federal arms, and the acknowledgement of the Federal authority throughout our common country, yet many serious and perplexing questions arise as to the proper settlement of the difficulties between the different sections of the country, and

WHEREAS, His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, has given every evidence of his loyalty and fidelity to the Constitution of the United States, and of his determination to stand by its landmarks, amid the difficulties that surround him; therefore Resolved, by the Council, the House of Representatives concurring, That we take this opportunity to express, in common with the balance of our countrymen, our joy at the successful termination of the war, our sympathy with those whose homes have been made desolate, and our gratitude to Almighty God for His protection in the trying hour.

Resolved, That in the present Executive of the United States we recognize the patriot and the statesman—one worthy to occupy the high position once filled by the Father of his Country, and we pledge to him a faithful and unswerving support in the plan of reconstruction so successfully inaugurated by him in the southern States.

Resolved, That we see exemplified in Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant the highest type of the heroic soldier, the patriot and gentleman, one upon whose brows may justly rest the palm of virtue, entwined with the laurel wreath, and that we claim with grateful pride our share of the glory he has shed upon the American arms.

Resolved, That to the gallant soldiers who have so nobly and gloriously fought in defence of their country and its liberties in the trying contest just ended, we tender our grateful admiration and praise, and bespeak for them honorable distinction in the walks of civil life.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the journals of both houses, and that copies thereof be sent, one to the President of the United States, one to Lieutenant General U. S. Grant, and one to each house of Congress of the United States.

HENRY W. FLEURY,

Assistant Secretary of the Territory.

Regarding the death of Abraham Lincoln.

WHEREAS, There has been, to this time, no formal expression of regret on the part of the people of Arizona, over the untimely and lamentable death of Abraham Lincoln, the sixteenth President of the United States; therefore

Resolved, By the House of Representatives, the Council concurring, That we record our abhorrence of the dastardly act which deprived the nation of the valuable life of Abraham Lincoln, when his great statesmanship and noble character had won the confidence and applause of the civilized world, and the wisdom of his administration of public affairs, at the most critical period in the life of the American people, was universally conceded.

Resolved, That here where civil law was first established by the generous consideration of his administration, as elsewhere upon the continent, which owes so much to his honest and persistent devotion to liberty to justice and to the government of the people, his name is honored and revered as that of a true patriot, a profound ruler, and a magnanimous and unselfish man, whose highest motive was the public good, and whose consistent career has elevated the dignity, brightened the renown, and enriched the history of the Republic.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the illustrious dead, and to the present President of the United States, also, that they be published in the ARIZONA MINER, and in the principal journals of the Pacific and Atlantic States.
