

Cloth fragment from Lincoln's shirt included in the framed collage. The collage also incorporates newspaper clippings and other printed documentation about John C. Weaver, one of the six soldiers who transported Lincoln's body from the Peterson House to the White House. The collage also contains a photograph of Ella Millen (Weaver's daughter) and several of her handwritten annotations.