The Governor's Proclamation.

Wednesday to be Observed as a Day of Fasting and Prayer.

Special Dispatch to the Sentinel.

MADISON, April 17.

Governor Lewis issued a proclamation to-day, paying a touching tribute to President Lincoln's memory and expressing the sorrow of the people of the State of Wisconsin and their sympathy with the President's family, and a new determination to defend and maintain the Union and assert the power and authority of the Government. The proclamation concludes as follows:

"I recommend as a mark of respect to the deceased, that for one hundred days from this date all public buildings, court houses and other public buildings be clad in mourning, and that during that time the people of this State wear the usual badges of mourning, and in view of this sad and unforeseen event, I do hereby modify and change my proclamation of the 12th inst.; and recommend that Wednesday, the 19th inst., be observed as a day of fasting and prayer and in commemorating by suitable ceremonies and demonstrations, the late Chief Magistrate. It is ordered that appropriate military honors be paid to the memory of the deceased."

There is a general disposition here to render cordial and hearty support to President Johnson, and aid his administration in every possible way.

committee to carry the arrangements into effect. The Navy Department has issued orders for closing business at all the Navy Yards and naval depots on Wednesday, and for observing the day on board of all national vessels in the United States.

The report still prevails that Booth has been arrested and is on board of a gunboat in the Potomac. The origin of the story was in this wise: A prominent military officer came into the Navy Department on Saturday, and said he had just learned that Booth was overtaken some miles out on the road leading from Seventh street, and asked whether the department would consent that he be placed on board of a gunboat. The reply was in the affirmative. Unfortunately the same officer received later information that the report was not true.

The military authorities have received no intelligence of his arrest.

At 1 1/2 o'clock to-day Secretary Seward was represented to be in an improving condition, though he rested rather uncomfortable last night from mental excitement, caused by conversation with friends in relation to recent events. His son, Frederick, has partially recovered consciousness, and his symptoms are otherwise somewhat favorable.

Mr. Hansell, the messenger of the State Department, who was stabbed in the back at the same time, is a great sufferer, but is believed to be out of danger.

Numerous arrests of indiscreet or suspected persons have taken place to-day. They cause much excitement.

Reports prevail that Surret is among the number, but this is not true.

Yesterday a gray coat stained with blood, and which evidently had been worn as an overcoat, was found near Fort Bunker Hill, just back of Glenwood Cemetery. In the pocket was found a false moustache, a pair of riding gloves, and a slip of paper, upon which was "Mary E. Gardner, 419." This coat is supposed to have been worn by the man who attacked S-e-c Seward, although the weight of the evidence indicates that all the conspirators took the same route, that of the Navy Yard bridge.

This morning detective Kelly and a detail of policemen of the Second Ward, by order of Judge Chin, proceeded to the house of William Turner, on the corner of Thirteenth and Ohio Avenue, and arrested all the inmates, from the mistress to the cook, eight in all, and carried them to the police headquarters, to be held as witnesses.

This is the house where Booth spent much of his time, Ella Turner, the woman who attempted suicide, being his kept mistress.

The name of the assassin who entered Mr. Seward's house is Thompson.

The members of the diplomatic body yesterday held a meeting at the Russian legation, and have decided to join in all the outward demonstrations of sorrow which have been determined upon by the authorities and the citizens.

Information has been received by the government from Gen. Sherman, that he was in communication with Gen. Johnston with a view to the surrender of the latter. Gen. Sherman would offer the same terms that Grant did to Lee, and it was supposed they would be accepted.

There had been no fighting between the forces of Sherman and Johnston.

It was believed at Sherman's headquarters that the surrender of Johnston's army would take place last Friday.

NEW YORK, April 17.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says Booth asked the clerk at the National Hotel if he was going to Ford's theatre that night, telling him he ought to, as there was to be some splendid acting there that night. The next heard of Booth was a little after seven o'clock, when he, in company with five others, entered the drinking saloon of George Harry, adjoining Ford's theatre, and all of them drank together. The emphasis of their manner in taking the drink attracted attention. After drinking they shook hands with each other, bidding one another good-bye. Upon leaving the bar-room

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 17.

Gen. Hobson's men killed Marion, the guerrilla, yesterday.

Webster, the noted guerrilla, is preparing to surrender his whole command to Gen. Hobson, who has his forces so arranged that they must surrender or be exterminated.

FROM FRANKFORT, KY.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

FRANKFORT, Kentucky, April 17.

By the hand of an assassin, a great grief has been brought upon our country. The Chief Magistrate of the nation, the President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln, has fallen a victim to rebellious hate, under the vengeful blow of an assassin. He has fallen at a time when his great qualities of humanity were so hopefully invoked for the healing of our national woes. With no stain of a vindictive nature upon his soul, with a great heart of generous sympathies and broad humanity, his untimely fall has bowed a nation's head in mourning.

On Wednesday, the 19th inst., at the hour of 12 o'clock, in the hour of his funeral, let every church bell be tolled throughout the commonwealth; and on that day let all business be suspended, and all business houses be closed and draped in mourning. The citizens of Kentucky are invoked to pay that homage to the national grief which such a great calamity inspires.

(Signed)

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE,
Governor of Kentucky.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 17.

To the People of the State of Illinois:

The funeral ceremonies of the late lamented Chief Magistrate are to take place in this city at the Executive Mansion, at 12 m. on Wednesday, the 19th inst. The acting Secretary of State has invited the various religious denominations throughout the country to meet within their respective places of worship at that hour, for the purpose of solemnizing the occasion with appropriate ceremonies.

Responding to the spirit of this announcement, I call on the people of Illinois, the home of her martyred son, to meet in their respective churches and places of worship that day to observe in such manner as the painful occasion shall suggest the solemn hour.

(Signed)

OLESBY, Gov.

FROM MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, April 17.

On Saturday the flags on the court house, city hall, custom house, and other public buildings, were displayed at half mast. In all the churches yesterday, the clergy, in their prayers, referred particularly to the assassination of the President, and expressed their detestation of the crime. A Union prayer meeting of all the different denominations of christians is to be held to-night in the Wesleyan chapel, to express sympathy with the people of the United States. Throughout Canada there is but one feeling of horror at the crime, and the warmest sympathy for the nation.

FROM BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, April 17.

Chas. A. Fulton, of the American, has just arrived from Charleston and Savannah. At the latter place he learned that on Monday, the 10th, Jeff. Davis was at Macon, Ga. At Havana he learned from a bank officer that Jeff. Davis had on deposit in one of the banks there $100,000 in gold.

shook hands with each other, bidding one another good bye. Upon leaving the bar-room two of the party rode off on horseback.

After the tragic occurrence an officer commanding one of the fortifications of the city was hurrying to his command, accompanied by an orderly. Between Lincoln Hospital and Camp Ranny they came upon two men riding desperately. These two turned down a lane, in which were four others, all mounted. The officer and orderly gave chase, and were fired upon. The orderly was wounded, and the party rode rapidly away and escaped with those who were evidently waiting for them.

The Post's Washington special says several additional arrests have been made to-day of Maryland rebels, but no prominent man has been caught yet.

Another cabinet meeting was held to-day. Gen. Grant was present at Gen. Augur's headquarters this noon.

There was a confident hope that Booth would be captured before to-morrow.

The Commercial's special says it is feared the assassins have escaped and taken refuge in the mountain fastness across the Potomac.

Fresh developments point to certain parties in New York.

The Post's Washington special states that Booth has been traced to Port Tobacco, Charles Co, Maryland.

Passengers from Richmond state that the assassination of the President created the greatest consternation there. People expressed their fears of the consequences.

A man was thrown from a Brooklyn ferry boat into the river for the expression of disloyal sentiments. His life was saved by a passing boat.

Both this city and Brooklyn are enveloped in mourning, and the streets are crowded with persons viewing the decorations.

Gen. Wells, John Gallagher, Wm. Fanning and Thomas Barton, the latter treasurer of a theater, were to-day each sentenced to six months in the penitentiary for uttering treasonable sentiments.

Last evening a squad of patriotic young men visited the house of Mrs. John Tyler, widow of ex-President Tyler, on Staten Island, demanded and obtained a review of which has long been prominently hanging in her parlor.

Dr. May, of Savannah, a violent rebel, was present but kept quiet. The parlor of Mrs. Tyler is where secessionists have often met during the war, and was the headquarters of a rebel sewing society. The flag was sent to Gen. Dix.

Several secessionists are reported to have been beaten by infuriated Unionists, on hearing their awful comments on the assassination made by these fiends.

An inflammatory placard was posted around the city this morning, concluding with "Death to traitors;" "The Union, one and indivisible;" "Strike off n—no more parley."

The Herald's Army of the Potomac correspondent gives details of the work of paroling rebel prisoners.

It appears Lee surrendered about 16,000, including officers, privates and teamsters. The artillery number 170 pieces, and the wagons 700.

A Richmond correspondent says Lee has gone to Danville to endeavor to prevail on Jeff. Davis to desist from further prolonging a hopeless struggle.

The Herald's Winchester correspondent says: The soldiers are greatly incensed at the assassination, but they are counselled to calmness.

A flag of truce came in from Imboden on Saturday; the object being understood to be the surrender of his forces as a part of Lee's army. The rebel Gen. Rosser, however, refused to comply with the terms of Lee's surrender, but his troops deserted him en masse, and he went to join Johnston. Many of his paroled men have reached their homes in the valley.

Lee turned over, in round numbers, 30,000 men.

Our losses will probably not exceed 10,000 or 11,000.

MADE BY DEPOSIT AT ONE OF THE BANKS THERE $100,000 in gold.
