

BIXBY COLLECTION

Hon E M Stanton

Sec of War.

Sir.

The running of cars upon the street railroads, between 17th Street and the Congressional Cemetery, should cease to run between 11 A M, and 5 P M.

The rolling of cars, and the jingle of bells will contrast strangely with the solemnity of those sacred hours.

Yours affectionately.

PRESENTED TO
MISSOURI HISTORICAL SOCIETY,
BY W. K. BIXBY.

Washington,
18th April 1865.

Anonymous.

Suggests stopping street cars, between 17th Street and Congressional Cemetery,
on the 19th inst.